PR114/22    Chairs Business

The Chair, Councillor S McAleer advised Members that she had agreed an additional report be considered and invited the AD: ODP to present report on Corporate Performance Improvement Plan (PIP plan) 2022 to 2023.

The Assistant Director: ODSP drew attention to the previously circulated report and sought approval for the Council's Corporate Performance Improvement (PIP Year 2) Plan 2022-2023.

Councillor McKinney drew attention to environmental impact and sought clarity as to what different had been done from last year and asked what the Council's action plan was regarding same.

In response the AD: ODSP advised that within the report there was key activities outline and drew particular attention to recycling rates and the boost in carbon reductions associated with recycling and EE omissions. He also drew attention to the greater use of Council infrastructure highlighting the recycling of laptops and pcs which have been distributed in the community. In conclusion he highlighted the focus on air quality and council programmes such as biodiversity and affordable warmth to educate on improved efficiencies.

Councillor McKinney highlighted that he had read that Aberdeen Council had 75% fuel free fleet using alternatives to fossil fuels but currently it did not appear that Mid Ulster was taking the first steps. In response the AD: ODSP said there was planned activity to review vehicle fleet.

The SD: Environment said a recent recommendation had been brought through Environment Committee to work with Sustainability NI and consultations would take place on best practice. She highlighted that work was being undertaken but emphasised that it was better to research and ascertain what best practice was before embarking on what could be a wrong approach. The SD: Environment mentioned projects in relation to flooding, wind power and use of hydrogen. She also advised that practical steps were already taking place with staff for example online meetings reducing mileage costs and less impact on the environment. She concluded there was much work in progress and more would come.

Councillor Cuddy stated that Council should be able to measure improvements and demonstrate same and have projects to build momentum on rather than just a report. He expressed disappointment on the use of consultants.

Councillor McLean said it was important to take cognisance of what the SD: Environment had said that research was required before taking a strategic move as quick gains don't always pay off. He said he was conscious of use of consultants but Council was a large organisation which needed to be cost effective. He said Council had recently purchased vehicles and their value needed to be taking into consideration in fleet replacement. He concluded that whilst Council should be proactive it also needed to be cautious factoring implications of each stage.

Councillor Molloy referred to the FASTER project The FASTER Project is a joint initiative by partners in Scotland, Ireland and Northern Ireland to support the overarching ambition to transition to low carbon transport systems. He highlighted in particular projects for electric vehicle charging points, which there was a dearth of across Mid Ulster. He said Council should not reinvent existing projects and proposed that the FASTER project be invited to present to relevant committee.

Proposed by Councillor Molloy
Seconded by Councillor McKinney and

Resolved That it be recommended to Council to invite FASTER project to make a presentation regarding transition to low carbon transport systems.

Proposed by Councillor Gildernew
