| 1.0 | Purpose of Report |
| 1.1 | This report sets out and provides the concepts on how Council will capture the legacy of the former Cookstown, Dungannon and South Tyrone and Magherafelt councils. |
| 2.0 | Background |
| 2.1 | The new Mid Ulster Council took responsibility for the full delivery of local government services in the Mid Ulster region on 1 April 2015. The creation of Mid Ulster consequently resulted in the winding up of the three legacy Councils. Policy and Resources Committee previously agreed that this be undertaken by undertaking the following as detailed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Memorabilia Identified, photographed and incorporated within a permeant/ temporary display within legacy Council Offices. To involve the memorabilia of each legacy Council being professionally photographed and used as part of an interpretative display which would chart the history, significant milestones, developments, list of chairs and vice chairs and significant changes within the district under the tenure of the Council (1973-2015). |
| 3.0 | Main Report |
| 3.1 | Appendices A-C set out the proposed legacy storyboards for each legacy council area. These versions are subject to final editing, if necessary. |
| 3.2 | It is envisaged that the storyboards will be initially displayed in the foyer of each Council office for a period. |
| 3.3 | The permanent location at the end of the period for the display of the interpretative storyboards will be in the Chairperson's office in each of the Council buildings in Cookstown, Dungannon and Magherafelt. |
| 3.4 | The dimensions of the story boards will be largely determined by the display space available and the amount of information to be captured and to be in keeping with the final destination. It is envisaged that all three will be of a similar size. |

| 5.0 | Recommendation(s) |
| 5.1 | To note that (i) storyboards will be displayed in the reception area of the three Council buildings in Cookstown, Dungannon and Magherafelt for a period. Following the initial display period the story boards will be moved to the chair's office in each of the offices for permanent display; and (ii) A permanent display of identified legacy council memorabilia is created within each of the three legacy sites. This should include, for example, the chain of office and visitor books. This will be dependent on availability for each legacy Council. |
