13.1 Councillor McGinley to Move

That this council notes with concern the deficit that exists within current local government legislation to provide full access to democracy in times of maternity/paternity leave for Councillors.

This council resolves to write to and seek an urgent meeting with the Minister for Communities to discuss the need for legislative change to ensure that rate payers are best represented at all times and to ensure that there are no barriers to public life for those who seek elected office.
