Notices of Motion

16. Consideration of Motions

16.1 Cllr Cuthbertson to move:

Mid-Ulster Council congratulates Lord Morrow MLA for Fermanagh -South Tyrone, on successfully steering his Private Members Human Trafficking and Exploitation (Criminal Justice and Support for Victims) Bill through the Legislative Assembly. Recognises the cross party support his Bill received and following Royal Assent expects the PSNI to enforce the new offences and the Departments of Health and Justice to roll out the provisions in the Bill to tackle the scourge of Human Trafficking and Exploitation in Northern Ireland

16.2 Cllr Mulligan to move:

That this council notes with concern the comments of Sinn Fein leader Gerry Adams on 24th Nov.in Enniskillen, where he cast aspersions on the parentage of unionists, and further blatantly declared the issue of Equality would be used as a tool 'trojan horse like' to break the 'Bs'.

It further notes that this council endorses the principle of a mutually respectful, shared future

16.3 Cllr McPeake to move:

*That this Council supports the work of the Motor Neurone Disease Association dedicated at improving the care and support of those affected by MND to funding and promoting research and to raising awareness so that the needs of those suffering from the disease are addressed and further calls on Mid Ulster Councillors to sign the on-line charter of the MNDA.
